TITLE ORDER E-MAIL SERVICE

With Penn Attorneys' new file processing system, we now have the capability to e-mail your commitment, instant policy, CPL, final policies, etc. to you rather than faxing. If you would like us to begin e-mailing to you, please submit this form.

With this procedure, you will always have a record of your documents available on your computer. Also, you will be able to print out an original document as soon as you receive the e-mail. There will be no need for the original documents to be mailed, unless you wish us to continue mailing originals to you.
